Perpetual Limited License—For Instructional Use

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

I acknowledge and agree that the purchase of an electronic resource from Truth78 grants a limited license for its use. I agree that no other rights are being conveyed.

I and my organization will take reasonable steps to abide by these terms in order to protect the electronic resources from unpermitted use of any kind.

I understand and agree that the following points are true of a perpetual license for an electronic Teacher's Guide:

- This is a perpetual license that can be used to teach the curriculum repeatedly in the future. Note: Access to the electronic file is granted for 1 year. However, the license can be renewed 1 year at a time from the Truth78 website for a small administrative fee (approximately $5/year). This renewed license can be assigned to the same or a different individual.
- Each licensed copy may not be shared in any format (electronic file or printed copy) by multiple or rotating users. Each license is for one person for one year.
- Each individual may use the licensed copy owned by (or assigned to) that person in any format. This means that one individual may utilize a print copy and access the resource from multiple devices (work computer, home computer, tablet, and smartphone).
- Electronic resources may not be posted on a website.

Thank you for abiding by the terms of this license.
